TUDENT LIFE

HAPPEN'N HAPPENINGS

The game will soon begin.

Coach Connor goes over the game plan with his team.

There was always something going on during homecoming week this year. The events began with Casino Night, a time to show off your gambling skills and shoot for prizes that interested you. The movie "Murder on the Orient Express" was shown to get everyone into the groove of the week's railroad inspired theme: "The NCC Express." A pep rally was held the night before the game. Featured was Four Guys Standing Around Singing, a group everyone seemed to enjoy. Following the Cardinal Victory over Carthage College the next day, everyone went to the Fifth Avenue Station for the night's dance, a perfect conclusion for homecoming week.

Card sharks Jenny Mehlen and John Harrington show off their card-handling skills at Casino Night.

Let's do this all together!

ONE FOR ALL AND ALL FOR DAD!

This being a dad stuff can poop a guy out!

Matt Hook, the candyman.

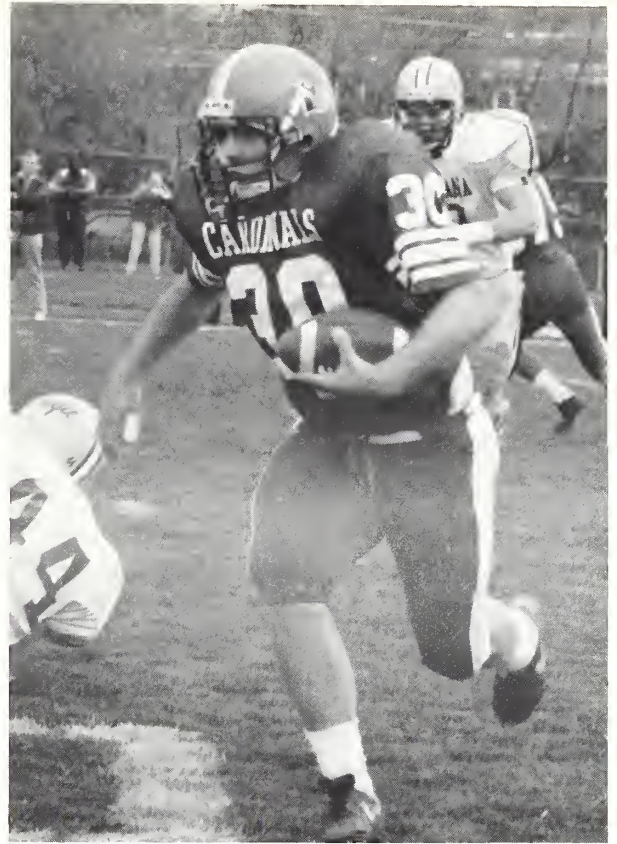

NCC's annual Dad's Day was held on Nov. 11th this year. The day began with a delicious brunch and was followed by an exciting football game between our Cardinals and the Augies of Augustana. Our team, despite their defeat, performed impressively, tallying enough points to stay in the game until the end against a team that traditionally dominates our Cards - and everyone else, for that matter. After the game, dads were able to have some fun and show off their athletic abilities in Merner Fieldhouse. The enthusiastic dads demonstrated their talents in the football throw, freethrow shooting, and on the putting green, a favorite of many golfing dads. The games ended with a prize-filled raffle. The day then concluded with the final performance of the fall play "Noises Off." All were in agreement: this event was a great success!

TURNED ON BY "NOISES OFF"

"Noises Off," the Fall Play, was shown on the weekends of Nov. 3-4 and Nov. 10, 11. Directed by Jack Phend, the play was a spectacular success. The action revolved around the comic interaction of characters played by Jeff Schactek, Lori Hendrickson, David Frugge, Susan Romero, and Victoria Muhl. The comedy was demanding of the actors, both physically and mentally, requiring intense concentration at all times. The magnificent performance owes much to the masterful execution of each role.

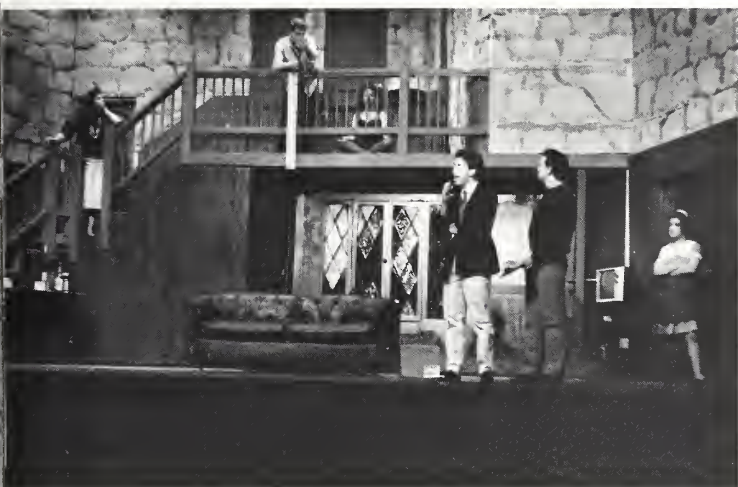

A heated "backstage" exchange.

Gad! I believe I'm standing in the sardines!

Smoothing troubled waters.

Please! Just try it my way for once!

Oh my! There she goes again.

The action builds to a feverish crescendo.

SIBLINGS DAY

Have you ever seen such talent?

Stop! In the Name of Love!!

This year, CUE sponsored Siblings Day was held at Enchanted Castle in Lombard. The day started with a Sibling Sing-a-Long, in which siblings participated in a lip sync contest. Enchanted Castle was filled with games, including crazy cars, miniature golf, and video games. They even served great tasting pizza! Siblings could redeem their hard-earned tickets for prizes at the end of the day. Siblings Day concluded with a Stock Hop sponsored by the Freshman Class Board. All in all, it was a good time for everyone who participated.

OUR HUMBLE ABODE

College life is grand. Just think: room service, a maid to make your bed and tidy up a bit each day, a shuttle directly to and from classes, and let's not forget, cable T.V. By now you are probably thinking that this does not sound like the college life you are accustomed to. Of course, if you are one of a handful of freshmen students who were accommodated at the Exel Inn during this school year, this is what you have come to expect. Due to a record breaking enrollment level this year, NCC was forced to find alternative housing for students who could not be accommodated through crowded campus housing. Most involved did not mind their predicament. In fact, the majority found their situation quite EXCELent.

THE BOY FRIEND

North Central's Production of The Boy Friend was performed on February 23, 24, and March 23, in Pfeiffer Hall. Set in Mice and the French Riviera in the 1920's, it was a heart-warming story of a young girl, Polly Brownie, played by Kathleen Scott, who is in search of the "boy friend". Polly is at a prestigious prep school surrounded by boy-crazy friends. Tony, played by Ted Trewyn, finally gets the honor of being Polly's boyfriend. This musical takes us through the trials and tribulations of young love, as well as a reunion of two past loves, played by Curt Vollman and Susan Romero. Comical, yet romantic, the cast of The Boy Friend included many "rookies" on stage, as well as the old favorites. Jeordano Martinez served as stage director and orchestra director.

CIVIL RIGHTS CONFERENCE

North Central College held a civil rights conference on January 22-25, 1990. The purpose of this conference was to increase the awareness of North Central College students and the Naperville community of the civil rights movement. Speakers included: Juan Williams, Shirley Hornington-Watson, and Ed King. Juan Williams is the author of Eyes on the Prize. This week of awareness included panels on: college students and civil rights in the 1990's, the impact of students on civil rights in the 1960's, and the civil rights movement in the Chicago area. On Wednesday, January 24th, North Central students toured significant civil rights sites in the Chicago area. Thanks to Rev. Barbara Isaacs, the Visiting Lecturer Committee, the Conference Committee, and Minority Student Association, students and the community had the opportunity to learn more about what the civil rights movement was and what can be done to continue it.

Our next CUAB president: Eric Skartveit

It's too close to call

S.A. elections on February 20th were the culmination of a period of intense campaigning by all candidates. This year's election was highlighted by a close race for the office of president, with Corey Baker narrowly defeating Bob Kossak by a margin of nine votes. Many underclassmen ran for and won key positions, boding well for a spirited participation next year.

WINTER AT A GLANCE

ORGANIZATIONS

NCC'S GOVERNING BOARDS . . .

Comprised of elected student representatives, the Student Executive Board (SEB) is the governing body of Student Association. The board meets twice a month to discuss student concerns and activities. Members include: Corey Baker, Esther Benjamin, Penny Corpus, John Harrington, Walter Leverett, Scott Nasternak, Jeff Peistrup, Pam Salik, Tracy Smith, and Kris Thiemke. Making the freshman class more aware of happenings on campus and inspiring class involvement were major goals that Freshman Class Board members worked hard to accomplish. Freshman Class Board sponsored activities such as the sock hop in Kaufman, and the Candy Kiss sale for Valentine's Day. Freshman Class Board created a feeling of unity amongst their class. Organizations Board met weekly to discuss upcoming activities and events. Organizations Board consists of one representative from each organization. Some goals this year were a greater interaction between different organizations, and a greater feeling of unity on campus. These goals were accomplished by the increased number of co-sponsored events put on by organizations.

SPIRIT THAT HITS HOME . . .

College Union Activities Board, sponsored by Barb Miller, is responsible for a variety of both on and off campus activities. CUAB sponsors the three major dances, Homecoming, Winter Carnival, and Spring Formal. Specialty Days, such as Dad's Day, Siblings Day, and Mom's Day, are all sponsored by CUAB, under the direction of Pam Gilbert and Amy Seitz. Penny Corpus, the Vice President of Blue Moon Cafe, brought musicians, comedians, and even juggler Mark Nizer to campus this year. On-Off Campus Activities this year included a trip to downtown Chicago for a shopping extravaganza, as well as a trip to see Shear Madness, a murder mystery play. This year's CUBA President was Vickie Rempert. Residence Hall Association (RHA) consists of representatives from each residence hall. The purpose of RHA is to organize cultural, social, and educational events for the residents of North Central College. The Sex Bowl was an RHA sponsored event. President Terri Rehberg worked in conjunction with the Residence Life Staff to provide these social and educational activities to North Central residents.

REPORTING FROM BEHIND THE SCENES . . .

Here is the behind-the-scenes look at North Central College's Publications. Spectrum, the North Central College yearbook, is an attempt at catching the year's events on film and in words. This year's yearbook staff was led by Co-Editors Bob Kossak and Tracy Fencel, along with help from Kent Lauer, Advisor, and a dedicated yearbook staff. The Chronicle is North Central's school newspaper. The purpose of the Chronicle is to keep North Central College students informed, whether it be about a visiting lecturer, new school policies, or last week's football score. Under the leadership of Editor Mary Weber and Advisor Kent Lauer, the Chronicle kept the student body up to date.

NCC'S NUMBER CRUNCHERS . . .

Students in Free Enterprise, Inc. (SIFE) is a non-profit corporation sponsored by individuals, foundations, and corporations. The purpose of SIFE is to educate the community about economic issues such as the national debt and liability crisis. Outreach projects include presentations at local schools, advertisements, and lectures. SIFE in conjunction with MSA, sponsored the "Success 2000" program this year, which has the goal of keeping inner-city minors in school. American Marketing Association, (AMA), had an astounding membership this year due to the leadership of President Don Nicolay, and Advisor David Belanger. The purpose of AMA is to expose students to all areas of the business world through guest speakers, and fieldtrips. This year, AMA sponsored the second annual coupon book through donations from local businesses. North Central's Math Club represents one of NCC's fastest growing departments. The members of the Math Club attempt to bring math to life and investigate its importance in our world. Members participate in problem-solving contests, submit puzzles to the Chronicle, and discuss math-related career options. This year's club is led by President Chuck Linneman.

Officers included David Slinn, Kurt Sievers, and Advisor Bill Motzer. Another close knit group was Impressions. Impressions is NCC's art club. Led by Connie Murray, this organization co-sponsored an art exhibit featuring art by black artists for Black History Month. Tri-Beta Club promotes the study of biology and related life sciences. They sponsored the Annual Tri-Beta Cheese Tea, and various social gatherings. President Diana Schnibben and Dr. Tom Williams led this organization.

CATCH THAT CARDINAL SPIRIT . . .

The Cardinal Cheerleaders kept school spirit alive by leading the fans in cheers and chants during football and basketball games, but they also kept busy off the court. Buttons and keychains were sold by the squad to raise money for new uniforms and other expenses. The North Central Poms, our own version of the Rockettes, danced and kicked during their half-time performances at the football and men's basketball games to entertain the fans. The squad raised money by holding a kick-a-thon. Officers include Captain Darcy Petter, Secretary Meredith Bogardus, and Treasurer Regina Knight. Led by four enthusiastic people, Corey Baker, Tami Brinker, Jim Godo, and Karen Viater, NCC Intramurals enjoyed another successful year. Faculty and students were able to choose from an even wider range of athletic activity this year. Intramural athletes included bowling, floor hockey, basketball, softball, volleyball, aerobics, and even jogging. This organization gives students and faculty a chance to stay in shape and stay competitive.

MUSIC AND CULTURE . . .

WONC, FM 89.1 is North Central's completely student run radio station. With a potential listening audience of 1 million people, WONC is one of the most powerful college radio stations in the country. Students are prepared for careers in broadcasting through their behind the scenes production work, as well as actual on-air personalities. Under the guidance of faculty advisor, John Madormo, and Station Manager, Donika Selenica, WONC provides musical entertainment for the NCC campus and the Naperville community. North Central's Pep Band, under the direction of Dr. David Horner, consists of North Central students and faculty who are interested in promoting school spirit and enthusiasm in the crowds at home football games and basketball games. This year's officers were Kris Thiemke, Michelle Scara, and Tim O'Hara. International Club, sponsored by Jack Shindler and Phil Flahive, is a strong, expanding group of students interested in international cultures and relations. Many of the students involved in this organization are international students, students who have studied abroad, or students planning on studying abroad.

COMING TOGETHER

The Commuter Information Association (CIA) Focuses on meeting the needs of commuter students. The association seeks to provide campus information to the commuters, and also provide a source of interaction amongst them through programs such as ski trips and trips to Chicago. CIA also sponsors other activities to give opportunities for commuter and resident students to interact outside of class. This year's CIA President was Al Bettig, and the Advisor was Judy Thorpe. The Minority Student Association (MSA) is one of the largest and most active organizations on campus. Representing students of various cultural backgrounds, MSA strives to promote human dignity and respect for one another and the whole campus community. The organization sponsored the Civil Rights Conference, the "Success 2000" program, as well as a minority job fair and visiting lecturers. President Tracy Smith and Advisor Rev. Barbara Isaacs helped make MSA successful. The purpose of the Non-Traditional Student Organization (NTSO) is to improve communication and "bridge the gap" between traditional and non-traditional students on campus. This goal is achieved through lecturers, fund raisers, and informational meetings. This year, NTSO, under the guidance of President Hope Strauss, sponsored a handwriting analysis workshop and a multi-band concert.

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING ...

The United Methodist Student Organization (UMSO) is primarily made up to United Methodist Students, but it is not limited to only them. This group meets for activities, fellowship, and study. They have sponsored many retreats this year which have proven both educationally and socially valuable. UMSO is led by Reverend Barbara Isaacs. Officers include President Sarah Baldridge, Vice President Jan Druce, Secretary Tim O'Hara, and Treasurer Christina Gossett. Rev. Isaacs is also the advisor for Chaplain's Advisory Board. This board coordinates religious programs on campus, which include retreats, worship services, and Bible studies. This year's officers include: President Amy Van Matre, Secretary Catherine Heerman, and Treasurer Tonia Symensma. BACCHUS is a new organization on campus this year. The North Central chapter of BACCHUS is called MADCATS, which stands for Make Adult Decisions Concerning Alcohol Think Sensibly. THE SOUNDS OF NCC

The North Central College choir is a dynamic group of individuals who enjoy singing and performing. The choir, directed by Jeordano Martinez practices daily and puts on one major concert per term. The swing choir, also directed by Martinez, includes choir members, and performs at special functions, such as faculty luncheons. New Visions is a special singing group directed by Reverend Isaacs. This is a traveling singing group which is affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

POLITICS AT NCC ...

POLIS was an active organization this year. Its activities included debates, the annual Food Drive, Model United Nations, and a Mock Congress. This years Mock Congress included high school students who were invited to participate to get a taste of what Congress is all about and what North Central's political science department is all about. Officers include: President Chris Kessler, Vice-President Amy Gay, Secretary Haj Shariff, and Treasurer Esther Benjamin. Ideas in Action, IIA, is an organization which provides students the opportunity to speak their minds about current issues and affairs which affect us. Through group discussions, workshops, conferences, and writing, IIA discusses ideas such as apartheid, hunger, the homeless, nuclear disarmament, and other current issues. This year's officers included: Jessica Porter, Kathy Preuss, and Alixe Tyus.

FOOTBALL

Starting this year's opener with a 42-21 victory over Elmhurst, the NCC Cardinals proved once again that they are a tough team to beat. With a final record of 3-6, the Cards have high hopes for next year. With the majority of the players returning next year, the future looks promising. As senior Phil Taylor pointed out, "We were all important. We were a team", which sums up sports at North Central College.

Overall, the team placed second in Regionals competition, and first in the CCIW Conference. Coaches Al Carius and Ken Popejoy led the team to another successful season. Coach Simon led the girl's team to a fifth place conference finish, and a twelfth place finish in Regionals. Paula Monk led the Cardinals at Conference with a twelfth place finish. ATHLETES IN ACTION

MEN'S BASKETBALL

North Central's Men's Basketball team had an outstanding season, with an overall record of 21-5, and a conference record of 15-1, the Cardinals were hard to beat. Despite a disappointing loss to Illinois Wesleyan, the Cardinals clinched the Conference title by defeating the Wheaton Crusaders by a score of 66-49. The Cardinals had several outstanding players: Robert Brown was named to the 1st team All - Conference, and the Midwest Region 1st team. Drew Hunter was also named to the 1st team All-Conference, with a 13.5 point/game average. Young talent on the team includes: Michael Patterson, and Alonzo Alexander. Patterson, only a sophomore, was named to the 3rd team All-Conference and had a 12 point/game average. Alexander was named to the 1st team All-Conference. Having so many young players, Coach Warden is looking forward to another outstanding season next year.

Co-captains and standouts Sandy Eberhardt and Natalie Vukas fostered a sense of camaraderie that showed in the team's performance. Consisting of 7 freshman, 3 juniors, and 2 seniors, next year's team should prove themselves tough to beat.

SWIMMING

Our cardinal swimmers had yet another fine year under the coaching of Denis Ryan. The team stacked with talent, from returning standouts Mark Townsend and Laura Williamson to numerous promising underclassmen, advanced to post season competition. All in all this year's team proved to be a force to be reckoned with in the CCIW.

WRESTLING

Overall, the 1989-1990 Cardinal wrestlers had a great season, placing 4th as a team in the CCIW. Three individuals all placed second in the CCIW: Bryant Clark (20-8), Sean Eggenberger (9-7), and Bud Bennington (12-10). "Several injuries on the team prevented them from doing as well as they should have," commented Coach Miller. Next year is looking up because Coach Miller has recruited several talented wrestlers, which he feels will round out the team and give them a strong, solid base.
